BY - LAWS
of
BRITISH WHITE CATTLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, LTD.
(Updated to 10/5/96)
ARTICLE I

NAME

1. The name of this Association shall be the British White Cattle Association of America.

ARTICLE II

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The British White Cattle Association of America has as its primary objectives the development and promotion of the British White breed of cattle. It is believed that the British White breed can make an important contribution to the improvement of the cattle industry in America.

The association is open to anyone with an interest in British White cattle. It is the intention of the association to maintain high breeding standards with emphasis placed on performance.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

1. Application for membership must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Association.
2. The Board of Directors shall have the power to accept or reject any applications for membership. The Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend or expel any member who conducts himself in a manner detrimental to the association or fails to comply with the rules and regulations, without refund of membership fees or dues.
3. A member whose membership has been revoked may make a written application for reinstatement and can be reinstated only after having received three-fourths (3/4) affirmative vote from the Board of Directors.
4. Legal Partnerships or Incorporated Companies shall specify in writing the person authorized to vote or act in their behalf at any meetings of the association.
5. Members may vote by proxy at the Annual Meeting if the delegate has in his possession a letter of introduction stating that he carries the proxy of the undersigned membership.
6. Active members are those who pay annual dues and herd fees or be a life member and pay annual herd fees. Only Active members are entitled to membership voting privileges.
7. Associate Members are non-voting members who may be interested in the advancement of the association, Associate Members may not vote or hold elective offices.
8. Junior Members shall be those under 19 years of age who have paid the prescribed fee. Junior Members are not entitled to vote nor hold elective offices.
9. Honorary Members are individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the development of the British White breed. They are elected by the general membership of the association provided they have been recommended for such an appointment by a prior resolution of the Board of Directors. Honorary Members are not entitled to vote and may not hold elective offices.
10. Charter Members shall be the first 50 members of the association.
11. The Board of Directors shall set all dues and fees pertaining to membership and publish them in a separate publication titled "Rules and Regulations."

ARTICLE IV

REGISTRATIONS

1. Effective from December 1, 1997 the official Herd Book & Registry shall be maintained on Computer in the British White office with Association owned software. The Herd Book shall contain particulars of the pedigree of British White Cattle to be entered therein.
2. Special forms and applications for applying for registration of animals into the registry will be provided by the association.
3. In all cases involving disputes over the pedigree of cattle either listed in the herd book or where application is pending, the decision of the Board of Directors will be final. However, the owner of any animal that is rejected for registry will have the right to appeal. The appeal must be in written form and directed to the President of the association. The board must act upon said appeal within thirty (30) days of having received said appeal.
4. When an animal is accepted for registry the secretary shall issue a certificate of registration in such form and upon such conditions as the membership may from time to time prescribe. In the event of a registered animal being sold, it shall be incumbent upon the seller (previous owner) to return the registration certificate to the secretary for the transfer to the new owner. The identification of the new owner will be made in the association herd book and a new certificate issued with proper ownership noted to the purchaser.

5. The recommended standard color and markings of the British White breed is as follows:
 1. Body white, with black points, i.e., eyes, muzzle, ears, hooves and teats.
 2. Body white, with red points.

If the animal is not marked as above and the breeder desires to register the animal it is his responsibility to designate it as over-marked or under-marked on the application for registration. This will then be reflected on the animal's registration certificate.

6. The bona-fide owner of the cow at the time she calves shall be designated as the "breeder" of the calf.
7. Any animal, male or female showing evidence of being horned is not eligible for registration into the association herd book. No exceptions. Scurs, defined as horn like growth, fastened only to the skin and not to the skull are acceptable. If the scurs are removed then the animal is considered to have been horned and is not eligible to be entered in the herd book.
8. The Board of Directors shall set all fees required for registry of animals into the herd book and these fees will be published in a separate publication titled "Rules and Regulations."

All performance weight and measures MUST be taken between the following time periods.

- 1. For Birth – Immediately following birth of the animal.
- 2. For adjusted 205 weight – 160 to 250 day's of age.
- 3. For adjusted 365 day weight – 300 to 450 day's of age.

The above are the basic standards of the industry.

- 9.. All animals entered into the registry must be identifiable by permanent tattoo identification inside at least one of the ears of said animal. The tattoo shall be the number of the animal plus the letter identifying the year. The letter is to follow the sequence of numbers. EXAMPLE: 120E (Letter at the end of sequence will change each year.) Said tattoo identification must be recorded in the Association herd book. This was changed in 1994 to agree with the standard International Tattoo Code.
